HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE K.C.BHANU

WRIT PETITION No.15187 OF 1999

Dated 5-7-2006

Between:

B.P.Narasimham, son of Penchalaiah, 69 years, Retired Employee, resident of D.No.25, Street No.25, T. G. Nagar, Madras (Chenai).

…. Petitioner.

And:

1. The Managing Director, Andhra Pradesh State Handloom Weavers' Co-operative Society Ltd., Hyderabad and another.

…Respondents.

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking to declare the action of the respondents in not disbursing the retirement benefits of the petitioner as illegal.

2. When this writ petition is taken up for hearing, it is fairly conceded by Sri B. P. Narasimham, learned Counsel for the petitioner that after computing the loss incurred by the organization and after fixing the liability in the Departmental Enquiry, the remaining amount, for which the petitioner is eligible to get, may be directed to be released.

3. On the other hand, it is submitted by the learned Counsel appearing for the respondents' organization that the organization has no objection to pay the amount, if any, after deducting the loss by fixing the liability inconsonance with the findings in the Departmental Enquiry.

4. In view of the above submissions, without going into the merits of the case, I deem it appropriate to direct the respondents to re-consider the case of the petitioner with regard to the retirement benefits after duly deducting the liability fixed in the Departmental enquiry.

5. Subject to the above direction, this writ petition is disposed of.
